Pastor's Page June 2017

When I was a boy, my father hung a wren house on the wall of the summer kitchen. From my open bedroom window, I received an early morning wake-up call from a wren that made the house it's summer home. It came even before the wake-up call I received from my father. That's another story for another time.

Now that I am living in the country, and the season of sleeping with an open window is upon us, I once again awaken to the sweet and cheery voice of the wren and any number of other song birds. It's glorious!

Why do birds sing at the break of day? Why does the lilac, like the one in the backyard of my childhood home, or the one in the yard of the parsonage, cast its fragrance out on the air? Why do fields and forests appear as verdant velvet as I gaze upon the creation these days?

Hearing, smell, and sight are all senses that receive their pleasures at a distance. And for whom are these pleasures? And why?

I remember my dear father's answer to the question. "These pleasures are for us. And the reason why we have the gift of such pleasures resides in "God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth."

Creation's sounds, fragrances and sights draw us from a distance, inviting us to behold, listen, taste, and touch. Christian teacher, Peter Leithart, writes that "they are not only for us. For the Christian, the ultimate answer (to the questions: For whom? And why?) is liturgical."

The third verse of the opening hymn of Holy Communion on May 21st, "O That I had a Thousand Voices," make the point. Its words and melody humanly articulate the cosmic liturgy of all creation. And so we sang:

"You forest leaves so green and tender that dance for joy in summer air, you meadow grasses, bright and slender, you flow'rs so fragrant and so fair, you live to show God's praise alone. Join me to make his glory known"

(ELW #833, vs. 3)!

In the Finale of his Motet for Double Choir, BWV 225, J. S. Bach articulates, in human words and melody, creation's praise to God already ascending to heaven in the sounds of the wren, the fragrance of the lilacs, and the vista of verdant fields and forests.

"All breathing life sing and praise ye, the Lord! Alleluia!"

Yes, creation exists to show God's praise alone, and in her worship the whole Church in the earth and heaven participates in that cosmic liturgy. Neither the wren or the lilac or the fields and forests, nor the Christian, can withhold praise to God for all his works.

"To Father and to Son and Holy Ghost," sang all the heavens, "glory!"---filling me with drunken joy; it seemed what I beheld
Was laughter of the universe, the glee of laughter whose inebriating swell enters by what you hear and what you see.
O joy! O happiness ineffable!
O riches safe, no worry of desire!
O life of love and peace, perfect and full!"
--Dante's The Divine Comedy

There's nothing better than Christian joy and delight offered melodiously in full throated praise! And you can take that to the bank! plm+

God's Grandeur

The world is charged with the grandeur of God.
It will flame out, like shining from shook foil;
It gathers to a greatness, like the ooze of oil
Crushed. Why do men then now not reckon his rod?
Generations have trod, have trod, have trod;
And all is seared with trade; bleared, smeared with toil;
And wears man's smudge and shares man's smell: the soil
Is bare now, nor can foot feel, being shod.

And for all this, nature is never spent;
There lives the dearest freshness deep down things;
And though the last lights off the black West went
Oh, morning, at the brown brink eastward, springs—
Because the Holy Ghost over the bent
World broods with warm breast and with ah! bright wings.

Gerard Manley Hopkins (1844-89)

Attention Elstad—Highland Prairie

Please consider attending worship when it takes place at your sister church during these summer months. “How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live (and worship) together in unity” (Psalm 133.1). As per a recommendation by the joint parish council, a limited amount of Wednesday evening worship services are going to take place in June on a trial basis. We hope that parish members, who plan to spend summer weekends away, will utilize this opportunity to worship. Each Wednesday services will utilize the texts, hymns, and proclamation from the previous Sunday. The first Wednesday service will take place at Highland Prairie on June 7th at 6:30 p.m. The joint parish council will assess the worship attendance at these services at the July meeting in order to determine whether they will continue in July and August.

Current activities include further work on the school, VBS, and continuing to feed the children. Money for purchase of goats is also appreciated. Underwear, socks, supplies and monetary donations are also appreciated.

We are looking for volunteers to help coordinate this mission. There is a small group going to Haiti in July. There is opportunity for travel to Haiti with a small group in the fall. Due to increased work demands, John and Michelle Rein are no longer able to attend this fall. If any parish members are interested in this opportunity, please reach out to Pr Luther or John and Michelle for additional information.
- C) Brad Boice concert. There is a Brad Boice concert scheduled for August 6 at 2pm at Highland Prairie Bowl. This is a gift to our parish and will be followed by fellowship. This is the same time as the Lanesboro Buffalo Bill parade. Pr Luther will check the time, but encourages attendance.

Sunday, March 19, 2017

The Meeting was held at Elstad Lutheran Church with Elstad President Dick Haight calling the meeting to order at 6:40 PM.

Roll call was taken with Jodie Daniels, Karen Bakken, and Gordon Johnson absent. A Quorum was called.

Others present: Lisa Chiglo—Parish Secretary, Pastor Luther, and David Bakke as a parish member to address the council.

President's report was given. Pastor Luther and members from each congregation will be attending services at Zumbrota Lutheran Church for the installation of the new deacon. The Root River Conference will also be held discussing how to approach challenging situations.

The Pastor's report was given.

1. Pastor Luther strives to understand the individuality of each congregation, yet work to build us as a cohesive Parish with communal togetherness. There should be ongoing conversations to continue to foster this growth.
2. Ministry to youth and family is also an area of focus. How do we encourage young families? How do we minister to them and support them? This should be an ongoing conversation.

There was no correspondence.

Old Business/Committee Reports:

A) none

New Business:

- A) Copier. The copier was fixed but will need to be replaced. Replacement can be a purchase or lease. Another option would be to utilize a print service and hire out printing. Rita and Sarah will work in a subcommittee to look into options, anticipated costs, benefits and challenges with each alternative. This will be brought back to the council.
- B) Worship Service time. Worship service time was also brought up as a concern. This was raised at an annual meeting and a straw poll was completed. At this time, the concern is noted, but no further action is thought to be required.
- C) Outdoor Worship schedule. Rally Sunday is 9-10-17. This was to be the first Sunday off the summer worship schedule. Since the congregations will be having a Joint Rally Sunday program, motion was made by Michelle, second by Sarah to have Joint Rally Sunday Program at 9:00, Joint service at HP at 10:00. There is also a vintage ball game planned at HP that date.
- D) Haiti Mission. Michelle gave an update regarding the Mission work being done in Haiti. There is a small group planning a trip this summer. Monetary funds would be the best means of support. Currently Pr Mioche and his team are working on completing the restroom facilities, drilling a new well, and planning ongoing projects. After Easter, more deliberate work will be pursued.
- E) Land Rent. There was a concern raised regarding the land rent contract with Bakke Farms. The land contract specifies that corn needs to be grown on this property. This was not initially recognized by Bakke Farms, and they are requesting they be allowed to grow soybeans. It is recognized that this restriction was noted by other bids for the contract, and the ability to grow other crops may have affected bids. The name on the land contract is also incorrect. This was changed from Collin Bakke to Bakke Farms. After discussion, motion by Sarah and second by Kay to adhere to 2017 contract restriction, requiring corn be planted. The motion passed. In order to come to a fair resolution, Bakke Farms will be offered the option to either null the contract after 1 year, or undergo arbitration meetings to come to a satisfactory conclusion for both parties.

Closed in Prayer by Pastor Luther.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:01pm..

- All four resolutions were passed.

The four resolutions passed at the assembly included:

- Resolution 2017-3: Support for Palestinians: A Way to a Just Settlement
- Resolution 2017-4: A Proposal to Amend the Model Constitution for Congregations of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America

Next year's assembly will be held at the Verizon Center in Mankato the first weekend in May. The theme of the 2018 assembly will be "Accompanying our Global Partners" and we will have guests from Tanzania, Colombia, and South Sudan!

A special thanks to all who participated in the 2017 Southeastern Minnesota Synod Assembly. Please share these highlights in your context.
